NAME OF PLAY SUBMITTED:

TYPE OF PLAY:

PLAY SYNOPSIS:

- 1) Has the play been previously produced, published, or optioned?
- 2) Will you be present at opening night of the performances?
- 3) If chosen, do you have any special needs for the reading of your play?
- 4) Number of actors needed for the reading: ___ Male ___ Female
- 5) Do you give permission for MOXIE Productions to make the script available to other production companies who may be interested in developing your work? MOXIE Productions is not responsible for anything beyond this introduction. The playwright assumes all responsibility for that relationship beyond the introduction.

Unless stated otherwise, MOXIE Productions will provide actors for the reading and workshops. Additional outside expenses requested by the playwright, if any (such as travel expenses, specialty production elements, actor fees, etc), for the readings of this work will be the responsibility of the individual playwright and their sponsors. Special consideration will be made for suggestions of collaborators by the playwright, but casting or hiring of such individual artists is not guaranteed.

Signing your name will act as clear indication that all the above is true information. All requested information is required to complete the filing of this application. Any unanswered questions will disqualify the submission. Each play submission must be filed separately with its own application and must fulfill the requirements of the contest. Copies of this application may be made for each submission as needed. MOXIE Productions reserves the right to amend said schedules and terms as deemed necessary for the production of the VT CPF.
